

WHA launches new website, logo, and mission statement

The WHA is pleased to announce its new website, www.worcesterha.org, effective January 1, 2018. As part of this launch, the WHA has also unveiled their new agency logo and mission statement. "Our new logo really ties in our core mission statement, which is not just about providing housing, but more importantly about helping people," said Executive Director, Alex Corrales. "The logo and mission statement are concise, but completely embody what the WHA does and stands for on a daily basis."
